

SENIOR FACULTY FELLOWS PROGRAM

July 2019 – June 2022 Request for Proposals

Overview and Program Goals

Faculty Fellows

The Indiana Campus Compact Faculty Fellows program is a year-long learning community experience designed to reflect the tenets of Boyer's (1996) vision of the scholarship of engagement. Selected individuals will serve a one-year term as part of a cohort with other engaged scholars from Indiana Campus Compact partner campuses. Each year the cadre of selected scholars will work collaboratively on a scholarly project which will seek to advance the understanding and practice of the field of community engagement through the collaborative engagement research paradigm (Jacquez, Ward, & Goguen, 2016), while individually incorporating community engagement into the three components of faculty work: teaching, research, and service.

The overall goals of the Faculty Fellows program include:

1. Building a strong and productive cadre of engaged scholars as envisioned through the collaborative engagement research paradigm (Jacquez, Ward, & Goguen, 2016).
2. Supporting faculty through the implementation of high-impact community engagement teaching practices (Hoy & Johnson, 2013) approached through a critical lens as imagined by Mitchell (2008).

Senior Faculty Fellows

The Senior Faculty Fellow is a three-year leadership opportunity for a highly engaged scholar who will serve as a peer mentor to each cadre of selected Faculty Fellows beginning in July 2019 – May 2022. The Senior Fellow will work closely with the staff at Indiana Campus Compact to shape the thematic work of each cohort of Fellows, ensuring that there is a common thematic thread connecting them.

The overall goals for the Senior Faculty Fellow program include:

1. Cultivate a culture of engaged leadership (Liang & Sandmann, 2015) through the collaborative engagement research paradigm (Jacquez, Ward, & Goguen, 2016).
2. Supporting the development of the competencies necessary to advocate for the use critical community engagement (Latta, Kruger, Payne, Weaver, & VanSickle, 2018; Mitchell, 2008) throughout higher education.

The Senior Faculty Fellow will:

1. Collaborate with Indiana Campus Compact staff to develop the three-year thematic lens that will guide the work of each Faculty Fellow cohort.
2. Lead each Faculty Fellows cohort, in the collaborative engagement research paradigm model (Jacquez, Ward, & Goguen, 2016), as a cadre of engaged scholars to develop and implement a research or creative project to enhance the understanding and advancement of the practice of the field of community engagement.
3. Teach/instruct a high-impact community engaged learning experience (Hoy & Johnson, 2013) in a manner that moves beyond traditional forms of service-learning toward a more critical perspective (Latta, et al., 2018; Mitchell, 2008). This experience could be envisioned as a curricular or co-curricular experience as described by Hoy & Johnson (2013).
4. Develop a new, or enhance an existing community-campus partnership as a means to provide professional service in a manner that fosters authentic and reciprocal relationships (Mitchell, 2008) by working with organizations from a social change perspective in what Boyer (1996) calls "the building of a more and just society" (p. 13).
5. Mentor Faculty Fellow participants in a manner that stimulates continued professional growth and development of faculty civic agency (O'Meara, Sandmann, Saltmarsh, Giles, 2011; O'Meara, 2012).

Additionally, the Senior Faculty Fellow is expected to:

- Co-facilitate three (3) mandatory, overnight retreats (the first retreat will be scheduled in mid- to late-July; the other two retreat dates will be determined by the participants during the first retreat.);
- Co-lead monthly conference call discussions;
- Initiate and respond to electronic listserv discussions;
- Produce traditional (e.g., academic publications, conference presentations, etc.), creative works (e.g., public art, exhibitions, etc.), and/or educational and public resources (e.g., program evaluation, training materials, community assessment tools, etc.) for dissemination; and

- Meet all agreed upon group and individual project deadlines, and submit a mid-term and final report outlining progress toward identified individual and groups goals and objectives.
