

2020 Brian Douglas Hiltunen Faculty Award

The Brian Douglas Hiltunen Faculty Award for the Outstanding Contribution to the Scholarship of Engagement honors mid to late career faculty at Indiana Campus Compact partner institutions who exemplify what it means to be an engaged scholar.

Brian Hiltunen served Indiana Campus Compact for four years as a project director and helped to design our faculty development programs, prior to his death in 1999. The Hiltunen Award was established in 2000 to honor Brian's legacy and his work with faculty who are practicing the scholarship of engagement.

This award has been endowed in perpetuity through the generosity of the Hancock Hiltunen Caito Family.

ELIGIBILITY

Full-time faculty members from an Indiana Campus Compact partner institution who have demonstrated:

- Deeply engaged, high-quality community-based academic work that has been disseminated across their field, with colleagues, students, and the community
- Community collaboration to make lasting impact through research, teaching, and professional service
- Enrichment of the scholarship of the intuition leading toward the culture shift to an engaged institution

PROCESS

Please submit the following:

- Nomination form (see below)
- Letter of nomination (should come from a university/college administrator at the departmental chair/dean level or above)
- Two letters of support (should come from a student and community partner)
- Examples of Community Engaged Teaching (1-2 syllabi from nominee's community-engaged learning courses)
- 250 word biography
- Print-ready digital photo
- Summary of nominee's engagement (750 – 1,000 words) addressing the following:
 - Evidence of deeply engaged, high-quality community-based academic work
 - Demonstrated integration of community engagement into their teaching, research, and professional service (e.g., teaching undergraduate or graduate service-learning courses, developing departmental or institutional civic

- engagement programs and curricula, studying the impact of such courses and programs on students' civic development, or conducting community-based participatory research, etc.) Evidence of community collaboration for change
- Demonstrated commitment and capacity to develop and sustain reciprocal community partnerships and to contribute to positive change on issues of public concern
- Evidence of collaborative interactions with community and related scholarship for the mutually beneficial exchange, exploration and application of knowledge, information and resources (research, capacity building, economic development, etc.).
- Demonstrated leadership in developing cultures, programs, and/or policies that promote meaningful engagement within higher education, and in one's discipline (e.g, efforts aimed at redesigning curricula; enhancing faculty development; recognizing engagement in faculty hiring, tenure, and promotion; or fostering common visions and collaboration across units or institutions, etc.)

CONDITIONS

- Nominations and supporting material are due May 15, 2019.
- The award winner will be announced and nominees will be recognized at the Indiana Campus Compact Annual Awards Ceremony. Nominee and a guest will be able to attend the Ceremony at no charge.

The winner will receive a cash gift of $500.00.

SUBMISSION

Please submit all documents in one pdf file. Please send the photo as a separate file. Please send them to iccgrant@iupui.edu with 2020 Hiltunen Award in the subject line.

Questions? Contact Liza Blomquist, Director of Communications and Outreach at, eldnewma@iupui.edu or 317-274-6505

Indiana Campus Compact 2020 Brian Douglas Hiltunen Faculty Award Nomination Form

Nominees's Name and Title:
College/University:
Department:
Address:
Phone:	Email:
Nominator's Name and Title:
College/University:
Department:
Address:
Phone:	Email:

